Below the question, there are two audio player widgets. The first one is for "Afghan Opium" with a due date of "DUE ON Monday September 22 at 05:00am". The second one is for "Carly's Dumbly" with a due date of "DUE ON Tuesday September 23 at 09:00am".

The screenshot shows a student's score sheet and feedback. The score sheet is a table with the following data:

Item	Score	Comments
1. Shadowing	5	Able to understand some of the whole with selected listening. A few accuracy and pronunciation mistakes.
2. Q and A
3. Delivery	16	Pronunciation is okay and intonation is nice. A bit flat.
4. Language Use	15	The range of vocabulary is not particularly good.
5. Accuracy	15	Not so wide range of grammar structures.
6. Topic Development	16	Repeats carefully.
TOTAL:	67

Below the table, there is a feedback section: "Feedback: I like the way you answered the question in a very clear way. You also pronounced some of the words in a clear manner apart from the word 'bearing/bearing' which actually made me confused. On the whole, you made very few errors, but you could probably be a little more ambitious in the grammar structures next time." The score sheet is marked by "Teacher Marj".
